

The finest boutique hotel in Mexico City

Fact Sheet

August 2024

Location: Las Alcobas Hotel sits in the heart of Polanco, Mexico City's most desirable neighborhood. Intersected by Avenida Presidente Masaryk, the "Rodeo Drive of Mexico City," Polanco is green with parks and flowering trees, dotted with private homes and leading-brand boutiques, corporate offices, art galleries and lively with the city's finest restaurants and cafes, with beckoning interiors and sidewalk tables.

Ownership: Las Alcobas is an owner-operated, independent hotel and affiliated with Marriott's prestigious Luxury Collection. It is the only LC member in Mexico City.

Design/Architecture: Las Alcobas was designed by Yabu Pushelberg (the Toronto/New York-based interior-design firm behind the aesthetic of selected Louis Vuitton, Four Seasons Hotels, Edition and Rosewood Hotels). Yabu Pushelberg refurbished the guest rooms and spa at Las Alcobas in 2020.

Lobby: Original artwork and ironwork, earth-toned furnishings, and a softly splashing fountain give the lobby a mid-century feel fused with a modern, spa-like serenity. Rising from its midst, a spiral stairway curls upwards like a ribbon of polished rosewood. Every surface is tasteful and textured, every detail custom made.

Accommodations: 35 guestrooms, including 3 penthouse suites (the only suites in Mexico City to feature open terraces) and a two-bedroom suite, are spread out through the seven-story building. In size, the rooms range from 400 to 1,600 square feet.

All rooms feature:

- Custom-made rosewood furniture
- Cutting-edge technology including 55-inch flat-screen televisions, air-filtration systems, automated central controls (drapes, sheers, lighting, AC, service and DND) that allow guests to tailor their own ambiance and privacy.
- Spa-inspired, all-marble bathrooms equipped with l tubs, a "menu" of handmade soaps, eight-jet showers, enclosed WC with integrated bidets, mirror defoggers, Bulgari bath amenities, plush terry robes.
